By accessing any Product from ThemeStock.com You are asserting Your declaration that You have read, understood, and agreed to all terms and conditions listed in this Agreement, and otherwise identified on our Website. The ThemeStock.com license attached to Your purchase grants You the right to use materials accessed from ThemeStock.com for personal/non-developer commercial use and developer/designer use, subject to the following limitations, terms of use and conditions as defined below.

Terms of Use and Conditions as Defined Below:

A. LIMITED USAGE GRANTED:

- 1. ThemeStock.com Personal/Non-Developer Commercial Membership:
You are granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable, one-person license to utilize ThemeStock.com Products subject to the terms outlined in this Subsection A(1), and elsewhere in this Agreement, for Your website(s) upon replacement and insertion of Your imagery and content, and after completed and accepted payment of Your membership registration fees.

ThemeStock.com offers three (3) personal/non-developer commercial membership plans each of which is distinguished by the number of licenses granted with that membership. If You purchase a personal membership You may only use the templates for Your personal websites and the number of websites You are permitted to use the templates on will be dependent on the personal membership package you select. The available personal membership packages and the licenses attached to that membership are illustrated below. ThemeStock.com reserves the right to amend these prices and licenses at any time.

Personal/Non-Developer Commercial License Memberships:

3 Month Personal Access - Price: $89.99 - Number of Licenses: 4
6 Month Personal Access - Price: $119.99 – Number of Licenses: 9
1 Year Personal Access - Price: $139.99 – Number of Licenses: 15

One license is used each time that any ThemeStock.com Product is used on any website URL. For example, the use of a ThemeStock.com Product on <http://www.yoursite.com> would constitute the use of one license. If You thereafter, chose to use the same Product or different Product on a subdomain, such as <http://design.yoursite.com>, or on a hostname, such as <http://hostname.com/yoursite>, this would constitute the use of an additional license. In other words, if You used the same or different ThemeStock.com Product on all of the examples listed above, You would have used three (3) licenses. Therefore, each website URL that You use a ThemeStock.com Product on will count as a license and You must register the website URLs You will be using the ThemeStock.com Product(s) on, and licenses for, within Your member account page once You have purchased a membership and each time thereafter that You use one of Your personal licenses.

You are not permitted to use any ThemeStock.com Product(s) on any website URLs that You do not have any licenses available to use said Product(s) on. Any violation of this provision of your ThemeStock.com Personal Membership Terms of Use will be considered a breach of Your service Agreement, resulting in the immediate suspension of your account and all licenses acquired prior to this breach shall be rendered void requiring the immediate removal of any and all ThemeStock.com Products from all website URLs You have used ThemeStock.com Products on and the deletion of said Products within Your possession. Again, please note, however, that You may not use any of the licenses provided as part of Your personal membership for any client or clients, and the ThemeStock.com products may be used on your personal websites ONLY.

If You need to acquire individual licenses at any time, You may do so by logging into Your account and clicking Buy More Licenses under Template Licensing in Your member account details.

At no time may You provide access to Your account to any other party or individual, including co-workers, colleagues, employees, family, friends, and the like. Memberships, and Products available for individual sale, are sold as a one-person license and are not transferable to another user at any time as stated. Therefore, any business, association, enterprise, corporation, company, or the like employing more than one individual that would require access to ThemeStock.com Products to utilize the Products in any manner or for any purpose must purchase an individual license for each employee. This requirement does not change due to replacement or termination of the employee the license was previously purchased for either by the employer directly or by the employee on behalf of his employer. There are no exceptions to this provision and account sharing or allowing anyone access to Your one-person account for any reason is strictly prohibited and, as all accounts are monitored, any such activity will result in the immediate termination of Your account to which no credit or refund will be provided.

Further to the above, Your use of ThemeStock.com Products on Your website does not allow You to: sell the Products on online auctions, sell or display the Products modified, unmodified, or otherwise from Your own website via an online catalog system or any automatic selling system, distribute the Products to friends, acquaintances, colleagues, co-workers or distribute the Products in any other manner for free or for payment.

Additionally, the use of the ThemeStock.com Products permitted under this Subsection A(1) does not extend to any activity or use that is strictly prohibited under Section D or elsewhere in this Agreement. Further, You are permitted to use Products from ThemeStock.com for Your clients, however, all use must be in accordance with the Developer/Designer use outlined under Section A(2) below.

Any violation of this Subsection A(1) of Your ThemeStock.com License Agreement will be considered a breach of Your service Agreement, resulting in the immediate suspension of Your account and all licenses acquired prior to this breach shall be rendered void requiring the immediate removal of any and all ThemeStock.com Products from all website URLs You have used ThemeStock.com Products on and deletion of said Products that You have acquired. ThemeStock.com further reserves the right to seek any and all available damages resulting from Your violation of this provision.

2. ThemeStock.com Developer/Designer Membership: You are granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable, one-person license to utilize ThemeStock.com Products subject to the terms outlined in this Subsection A(2), and elsewhere in this Agreement, for Your website(s) or Your clients' website(s) ONLY upon replacement and insertion of Your clients' imagery and content, and after completed and accepted payment of Your membership registration fees.

ThemeStock.com offers three (3) developer/designer membership plans each of which is distinguished by the number of licenses granted with that membership. If You purchase a developer membership You may use the templates for Your personal websites, as well as Your clients' websites, and the number of websites You are permitted to use the templates on will be dependent on the developer membership package You select.

A developer license allows You to use the templates for Your own website, or sell developed themes to a client in a client/developer relationship, which means there must be some level of development, such as installing or customizing the template. However, a developer membership license does not allow You to: sell the themes on online auctions, sell or display the themes modified, unmodified, or otherwise from Your own website via an online catalog system or any automatic selling system, distribute the Product(s) to friends, acquaintances, colleagues, co-workers or distribute the Product(s) in any other manner for free or for payment that is in violation of the terms outlined throughout this Agreement.

The available developer membership packages and the licenses attached to that membership are illustrated below:

Developer License Memberships:

3 Month Developer Access - Price: $199.99 – Number of Licenses: 20
6 Month Developer Access - Price: $399.99 – Number of Licenses: 45
1 Year Developer Access – Price: $499.99 – Number of Licenses: 75

For example, the use of a ThemeStock.com Product on <http://www.yoursite.com> would constitute the use of one license. If You thereafter, chose to use the same Product or different Product on a subdomain, such as <http://design.yoursite.com>, or on a hostname, such as <http://hostname.com/yoursite>, this would constitute the use of an additional license. In other words, if You used the same or different ThemeStock.com Product on all of the examples listed above, You would have used four (3) licenses. Therefore, each website URL that You use a ThemeStock.com Product on will count as a license, and You must register the website URLs you will be using the ThemeStock.com Product(s) on, and licenses for, within your member account page once You have purchased a membership. As such, You are required to register both your personal websites and clients' websites within Your member account page once You have purchased a membership and each time thereafter that You use one of your developer licenses.

You are not permitted to use any ThemeStock.com products on any website URLs that You do not have any licenses available to use said products on. Any violation of this provision of Your ThemeStock.com Developer Membership Terms of Use will be considered a breach of your service Agreement, resulting in the immediate suspension of Your account and all licenses acquired prior to this breach shall be rendered void requiring the immediate removal of any and all ThemeStock.com Products from all website URLs you have used ThemeStock.com Products on and deletion of said Products that You have acquired.
